

Servers & Storage

Solutions for all your needs

Why Ikonic?

At Ikonic Technology, we specialise in delivering top-quality server and storage solutions that drive your clients forward. Our partnerships with leading global brands ensure that we offer the most reliable, high-performance systems available on the market.

Why Invest In The Latest Equipment

Having the latest server and storage units offers numerous benefits that can significantly enhance any business operations. With cutting-edge technology that provides superior performance, increased reliability, and greater scalability.

Speed & Security

They offer faster data processing, improved security, and enhanced energy efficiency, which can lead to savings and improved

Our Products & Services

Server specialists from Ikonic can:

- Match products to your customer's requirements, with the latest generation & models
- Provide full inventory availability under one roof: all servers, storage and components
- Build, configure and test prior to sending to your customer
- Accommodate all budgets with refurbished sustainable options
- Ensure fast delivery from available stock

Configure & Build

We offer a free configuration service that ensures the solution we put together works perfectly for your client's bespoke infrastructure.

Extras & Bolt Ons

As a technology distributor, we can provide all necessary components at the point of order, from complete server and rack solutions to one piece of memory, making us the obvious solution for all your Server & Storage needs.

Latest Stock Available

With over £15m of new & EOL products in stock for distribution from Manchester & Frankfurt, with no allegiance to one brand, you can avoid any wait times and get an array of server products today.

Refurbished

Sustainable and at a reduced cost our range of second-hand or renewed servers & storage are perfect for the budget conscious end user.

Request a Stock List >